

Project Outputs – Institutional Pilots

Aston University

1. Recommendations produced for institutional development in EfS.
2. Green ICT conference held and microsite created.
3. Two papers produced on Embedding Sustainability in the Curriculum and assessing EfS.
4. Establishment of guidance documents for external accreditation, flexible learning, sustainable communities consortia.

University of Brighton

1. Curriculum planning toolkit created.
2. Curriculum Planning workshops held and pilot feedback provided.
3. Identification of intervention points and supporting resources and activities to assist course teams to engage with ESD, built into QA and QE processes.
4. Postcards for students (incorporating student design competition 2012-3) to introduce ESD in different subject/professional contexts.
5. ESD website developed.

University of Exeter

1. Reference to EfS in Teaching Quality Assurance Manual
2. Workshops held on EfS in the Business School.
3. Interactive Quick Guide to EfS developed – addressing EfS across disciplines with hyperlinks to access resources.
4. Module template designed in Business School to address major themes of sustainability, internationalisation and employability using a consistent approach.

University of Gloucestershire

1. Revisions made to QA Handbook – to clarify institutional strategic intentions in EfS and links with other policies and QA processes.
2. CPD workshop held with senior QA and QE staff to progress dialogue about ways to embed EfS.
3. Academic Guidance Materials developed:
  - Staff Induction Materials
  - Briefing on EfS and Quality
  - Subject Guides – linked to national QAA benchmarks
  - Curriculum Planner – tool for mapping EfS in the curriculum and to plan enhancements

Oxford Brookes University

1. Articulation in formal quality documentation of ESD as part of Global Citizenship and core to Graduate Attributes across all programmes.
2. 3 new academic publications on ESD and Global Citizenship in teaching and learning practice.
3. Staff CPD Guide to Global Citizenship and ESD in the curriculum.